The dragonfly is a symbol of change and rebirth. I feel like 2020 has brought so many changes to our daily lives. All the rituals we once looked forward to, have been altered beyond recognition. But with change can come growth and rebirth. My hope is that as a world, we re-align ourselves with values that are truer to our hearts and recognize the importance others play in our lives and how truly interconnected we all are. When this passes, the world will come together in our shared grief and we'll heal each other through compassion, empathy and kindness.

My heart to your hearts we are all connected

“...I think of how much people cared enough to involve us and the feeling of unity I feel when I see the art installation. I loved it.”

Molly Chaucer, project artist and resident at the Residences at Creekside.
